This late 1980s Scammell Routeman, in mark 3 guise, is a 30 ton GVW 8x4 tipper, capable of carrying a 20 ton payload. Seen here at Kanes Hightown quarry, it was held in high regard by the 'tipper' fraternity and a familiar sight on construction sites the length and breadth of the land.

JOHN'S BIG J

The legendary company of Brian Harris of Bovey Tracy in Devon usually owned ERF. However, the one alternative they did use was a Guy Big J tractor unit. This gave sterling service on their Devon to Scotland run for many years and was driven for most of that time by John Corah.
